

Quick Guide – Getting an Agility Number for the new handler

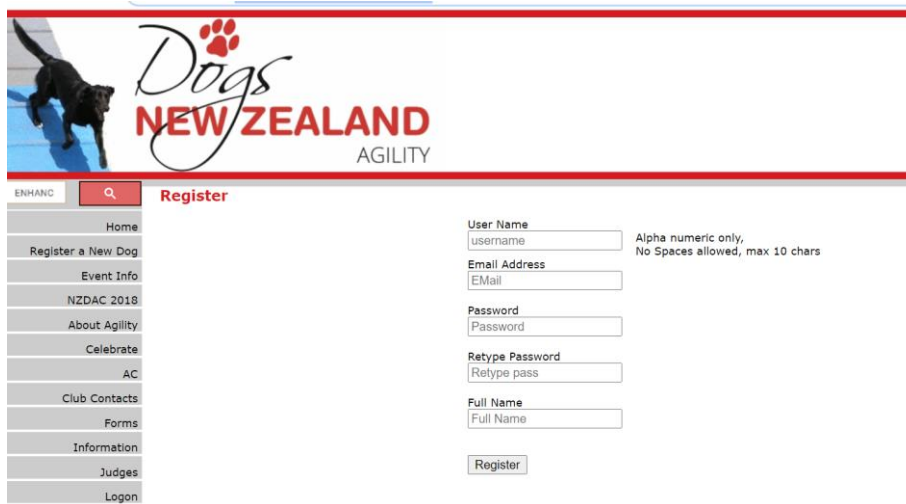

All dogs which will compete in any recognised event in NZ (including ribbons trials) now require to have a permanent agility number.

The following process outlines how a new handler registers on the Agility Committee website and applies for a number for their dog. The process is very simple and has no cost. It is not necessary to be a member of DogsNZ to compete at Ribbon Trials.

This process should be followed prior to getting a measure done.

1. Go to the Agility Committee website and register by filling in the form below.
