

Agility Graduation Criteria

YES	QUESTION	NO	NOTES
↪	With any dog, have you ever: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - won Elementary with a clear round, OR - placed 1st-3rd in an agility class with a clear round, OR - attained the title of AD or JD? 	Enter either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Elementary B & Starters, OR - Starters & Novice (more advanced) 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. At some shows there will be more than one of each class, in which case they are numbered sequentially, i.e. Starters 1 (St1), St2 etc. You may enter all classes at your levels. 2. Novice includes contact equipment as well as (normally) a full set of weaves. 3. Jumpers events are completely separate. Results from Jumpers do not count towards graduation in Agility classes, & vice versa. 4. Keep ALL your certificates. These may be required as evidence when applying for milestones / awards.

Wins / points awarded at Breed Shows do not count towards graduation for either Ribbon Trials or Champ Shows. 2. If you have entered a show and the cut-off date for entries has passed prior to you attaining the wins / points / qualification to graduate, you compete in that show at the lower level. For all other shows, where entries are still open, please notify the secretary to transfer any existing entries to the higher class.
